

Dandierine

Grows Hair and we can PROVE IT!
The Great DANDIERINE Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results.

It enlivens and invigorates the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, resulting in a continuous and increasing growth of the hair.

Letters of praise are continually coming in from nearly all parts of the country stating that Dandierine has renewed the growth of hair in cases that were considered absolutely hopeless.

A lady from Brooklyn writes:
"After a short trial my hair stopped falling, and I now have a lovely head of hair, very heavy and over one and a quarter yards long."

Dandierine stimulates the scalp, makes it healthy and keeps it so.
It is the greatest scalp invigorator known. It is a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a small bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made.
It shows results from the very start.

Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land; 3 sizes 25c, 50c and $1.00.

RECENT WEDDINGS.

Ranney-May.

The marriage of Nelson Church Ranney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Freemont A. Ranney, and Miss Beatrice Sophia May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs.
Elisha May, took place at the home of the bride last evening at eight o'clock. The ceremony was performed in the presence of about fifty immediate relatives and friends by Rev. Alfred P. Girt, Ph. D. The flower girls and the bride and her father descended the stairs and were met in the lower hall by the groom, and together they entered the parlor, where under an arch of hemlock from which was suspended a bell of daisies, the ceremony took place. The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of all-over embroidery over silk, trimmed with Cluny and Irish crochet lace. She wore a veil caught with mock orange blossoms and carried bride roses. The flower girls were her two cousins, Misses Helen May and Marguerite Weston, who were dressed in white with pale blue ribbons on their hair, and carried baskets of forget-me-nots.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was tendered the bride and groom and congratulations were offered. About 150 guests were present, who were met at the door by Miss Viola May, a cousin of the bride, and directed to the dressing rooms by another cousin, Miss Dorothy May. The banister and halls were prettily decorated with ferns and tulle. The bride and groom were assisted in receiving by Mr. and Mrs. May and Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Ranney. Mrs. May wore a gown of lavender and white embroidered voile over tulle, trimmed with flet net lace and lavender panne velvet, and Mrs. Ranney wore a tan colored dress trimmed with harmonizing silk, and with lace yoke and sleeves. The ushers were the bride's cousin, Walter Milton May, of Lebanon, N. H., and Arthur A. Annis. Young's orchestra of three pieces, Mr. and Mrs.
Young and Miss Alice Warden, were dancing during the evening, and Miss Edwina Blodgett sang two solos, accompanied by Miss Warden. An honored guest was the groom's aged grandmother, Mrs. Eliza J. Ranney, who wore black broadcloth satin with white lace fichu. The guests were shown to the dining room by Mrs.
Maude S. May, and Misses Mabel Spencer, Gertrude Hyde, Maude Men-ut, and Helen Bailey assisted in serving. The ice cream was cut by Mrs.
Lydia Beck and Miss Ella M. Wil-marth. The dining room was attractively decorated with forget-me-nots and maiden hair ferns, and the favors of forget-me-nots were presented by Misses Helen May and Marguerite Weston. The punch bowl which was on the piazza, was presided over by Misses Lottie Trail and Helen Soule of Burlington, and the guest book which was in the gift room, was in charge of Miss Gertrude Menut, and Miss Alice Soule of St. Albans. The gifts included a chafing dish and accessories from the town teachers and superintendent of schools, a china plate and cut glass berry dish from the bride's pupils, six solid silver forks and teaspoons and a cream spoon from the picnic club, and a quantity of linen and silver. The bride is a graduate of St. Johnsbury Academy, has spent a year each at the U. V. M., Burlington and Dean Academy, Franklin, Mass., and is one of our most popular teachers. The groom has always lived here and is employed by E. & T. Fairbanks & Co. Both have many friends who extend congratulations.

Guests from away were Miss Alice Soule of St. Albans, Misses Helen Soule and Lottie Trail, Mrs. Carl Weston and daughter Marguerite of Burlington, Mrs. George A. Arnold of Bainbridge, Mass., Miss Maude Barbour of Nashua, N. H., Miss Alice Bean of Newport, Dr. and Mrs. W.
G. Ricker of Wells River, and Miss Annie Burrhead of Marshfield.

On their return from their wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Ranney will reside at 53 1/2 Summer street.

Winn-Shores.

Fred D. Winn of Newport and Miss Maude E. Shores of Granby were quietly married on Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's uncle, L. W. Shores. The double ring ceremony was performed at eight o'clock by Rev. Edward T.

Fairbanks, D. D., in the presence of a company of nearly 50. To the music of the wedding march sung by Misses Mabel and Helen Dean, Miss Josephine Lougee, Miss Edna Wright, Mrs. Clara Dodge and Mrs. H. A.
Lougee, the groom and his best man, Carroll Winn of Danville, entered the sitting room from the hall as the bride party came from the rear, the little ring bearer, Miss Mildred Crawford, of Granby, carrying the rings on the stem of a calla, the bridesmaid, Miss Cora Smith of Granby, and the bride with her brother, Elwin Shores of West Groton, Mass.

The bride wore white silk muslin trimmed with all over lace and carried white roses. The bridesmaid wore muslin with lace trimming and her bouquet was of white carnations.
The room, which was decorated with ferns and roses. In the dining room, which was decorated with evergreen, forget-me-nots and peonies, refreshments of ice cream and cake were served by the girls who sang in the chorus. The presents included silver, china, linen, glass and money. Mr. and Mrs. Winn left that night for The Weirs where they spent a short honeymoon. The bride's traveling suit was blue. They will board for the present at Newport, where the groom is employed by the Boston and Maine. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elwin Shores and daughter, Winifred, and Mr.
Mary J. Powers of West Groton, Mass., Mrs. Susan M. Shores and Mr. and Mrs. George Crawford of Mildred and Robert Crawford of Victory, Walter and Gertrude Gleason of Granby, Miss Randall of Lyndon and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Winn of Danville.

Two weddings in which St. Johnsbury people are interested took place in Springfield, Mass., on Saturday, June 17, at the home of Miss Staats, 133 Bold street. The participating parties were Lloyd Garrison Hooker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Hooker of this place, and Miss Helen S. Staats of Springfield. They were married under an arch of laurel, and were attended by the groom's brother as best man, Arden L. Hooker, and by Miss Harrlette L. Willock of New Haven, Conn., as maid of honor. The bride wore a white embroidered gown and carried bride's roses. The wedding march was played by Arthur Dunbar of Providence, R. I., and Miss Margaret Dunbar of Providence was flower girl and carried laurel. The house decorations were pink and white roses and laurel, and the gifts were of cut glass and silver.

Immediately following the ceremony the bride's maid and best man were married, Miss Willock also wearing an embroidered gown and carrying bride's roses. Rev. Donald N. Alexander performed both ceremonies. The Episcopal service was used. Both couples came to St.
Johnsbury Sunday afternoon and will remain with the parents of the grooms for a few weeks. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hooker will later go to Flint, Michigan, and Mr. and Mrs. L.
G. Hooker will go to Detroit, Mich., where they will make their homes.
Lloyd Hooker has given up his position in Ludlow, Mass., to take a similar one in Detroit.

RECENT DEATHS

Douglas.

Hazel A., the 17 years' old daughter of Mrs. Charles H. Douglas, died last Wednesday morning after a long illness. She was born in Concord, where she lived until three years ago, when her parents moved here.
Quickly following a serious illness with typhoid fever tuberculosis of the hip joint developed and she has been confined to her bed for the past 16 months. The funeral was held at her home on Byington Hill, Friday, Rev. E. E. Grant of East St.
Johnsbury officiating. Her four cousins, Harley Douglas, Glenn Douglas, Guy Douglas and Millard Paul were pall bearers. She is survived by her grandmother, Mrs. J. C.
Taylor, her mother, and one sister, Mrs. W. H. Gero. The body was taken to East St. Johnsbury for burial in the family lot.
